

MOVERS & SHAKERS

Business people on the move

FINANCE

Vincent McDermott of Braintree has been named chief financial officer at Newton-Wellesley Hospital. He comes to Newton-Wellesley from the Lahey Health System, where he served as senior vice president of finance from 2015 to 2017. Before starting at Lahey, McDermott worked for nearly 20 years in various finance leadership roles in the Partners HealthCare System. McDermott received his undergraduate degree from Norwich University and master's degree in accounting and health care administration from Suffolk University. McDermott lives in Braintree with his wife, Tracey, and two children, Sarah and Myles.

HEALTH & FITNESS

Ryan Burke of Quincy has been promoted to assistant manager of Peak Physical Therapy and Sports Performance's Hanover clinic, which is at 645 Washington St. Burke joined Peak Physical Therapy in early 2016 and has more than five years of experience as a physical therapist. Burke, who earned a doctorate of physical therapy at the University of Massachusetts at Lowell, is certified to treat various neuromuscular skeletal conditions. He is a member of the American Physical Therapy Association.

Ryan Burke

SPOTLIGHT

South Shore business owner Thomas Carroll recently embarked on a second career as a Realtor at the Jack Conway office in Hanover. For the last 30 years, he has owned and operated Acme Office Systems, a shelving products distributor based in Hanover. He and his wife, Anne, live in Hanover. They have one grown son and a 5-year-old grandson.

Thomas Carroll

