

SUPER FUNKY FRIENDSHIP FEST Friendship Home raises $10K

Friendship Home raised $10,000 at the Super Funky Friendship Fest.

More than 300 Friendship Home supporters attended the event on Jan. 20 at The River Club Music Hall. The benefit concert featured The Aldous Collins Band, New York City singer, songwriter and musician Sara Leone and local band Phatt James. The event sponsors included Real Living Coastal Real Estate, Alex Clark Jr. and Peak Physical Therapy.

Friendship Home's mission is to enrich the lives of people with developmental disabilities and their families by providing quality respite programs and services. Programs include its Home Away from Home overnight respite center, Bridges to Work vocational program and social recreational programs.

"We are so grateful to all of our sponsors and attendees for raising $10,000 for Friendship Home. Our Circle of Friends continues to grow with friends who will help us spread the word about our organization," said Linda Malone, director of development.

SEE FRIENDSHIP, A6

"It is our pleasure to perform for such a worthy cause, which helps so many families in the South Shore and beyond. If you know someone with a developmental disability, you should definitely reach out to Friendship Home," Aldous Collins said.

For information: 781-659-8202; friendshiphome.net.

Friendship Home raised $10,000 at the Super Funky Friendship Fest. Pictured, from left: Amy Toth, of Real Living Coastal Real Estate; Alex Clark Jr.; and Jill Lamoreaux, of Real Living Coastal Real Estate. COURTESY PHOTOS

Friendship Home raised $10,000 at the Super Funky Friendship Fest. Pictured: Danielle Banard and Joe Malone Jr.

