

MOVERS & SHAKERS

Business people on the move

SPOTLIGHT

Kevin F. Malone of Quincy has joined Blue Hills Bank as executive vice president of commercial banking. Malone has more than 30 years of financial-services experience. He has customers ranging from New England-based middle-market and family-owned businesses to national customers in specialized industries. He also has experience with asset-based lending, acquisition finance, traditional commercial and industrial financing and credit underwriting, risk review and asset recovery.

Kevin F. Malone

HEALTH CARE

Cheryl O'Malley of Scituate has been named physical therapy assistant at Peak Physical Therapy & Sports Performance's Hanover facility. O'Malley joined Peak Physical Therapy five years ago, and has more than 16 years of experience as a physical therapy assistant. She received her associate degree from Lasell College and develops individualized therapeutic exercise programs for her patients to enable them to return to their daily and recreational activities. She also specializes in aquatic therapy.

Cheryl O'Malley

BUSINESS GROUPS

John Medlin III and Jeffrey Phelps have been named co-chairmen of the Rockland Chamber of Commerce. Medlin is owner of Rockland Athletic Supplies, a family-owned and -operated silk-screening, embroidery and engraving business. Phelps is vice president/owner of Amos A. Phelps Insurance, a family-owned and -operated firm based in Rockland. As co-chairmen, Medlin and Phelps will guide the Rockland Chamber, which has made the revitalization of the downtown a priority.

GET IN HERE

■ Send us your Movers & Shakers. Submit photos and text about people on the move at your company to: biznews@ledger.com.

