

MOVERS & SHAKERS

Business people on the move

FITNESS

Ryan Burke has been hired as a physical therapist at Peak Physical Therapy & Sports Performance's Hanover location. The business provides holistic treatment in orthopedic, spine and sports medicine specialties. Burke, a graduate of the University of Massachusetts-Lowell with a doctorate in physical therapy, has more than four years of experience as a physical therapist.

Ryan Burke

SPOTLIGHT

Old Colony Elder Services has appointed Kerry Zingaro of Braintree community programs assistant. She will work with the development, nutrition, healthy living, housing and volunteer departments. She was office manager and assistant property manager for the Devon Wood Condo Association in Braintree and has worked at Zep Manufacturing in Brockton. She completed coursework in social sciences and nutrition-based training. Zingaro also volunteers for Old Colony as a Meals on Wheels driver.

Kerry Zingaro

REAL ESTATE

Ilona Robbins of Raynham is Jack Conway Realtor's newly appointed agent productivity specialist. She will be responsible for reinforcing the principles of "Ninja," a national real estate training program. Robbins will work to train and support the firm's agents throughout their careers. She will teach classes, and offer coaching and accountability sessions at Conway's 30 offices from Swampscott to Cape Cod. She has a bachelor's degree in communication from Bridgewater State University.

Ilona Robbins

BANKING

Kerri Mooney of Chelmsford has joined Brockton-based HarborOne Bank as director of branch banking. Mooney previously worked for Rockland Trust, where she directed oversight for 14 full-service bank branches in the Boston area. HarborOne Bank also has 14 branch locations. Before Rockland Trust, Mooney worked at Northern Bank, Slade's Ferry Bank and Cambridgeport Bank in Cambridge.

GET IN HERE

.....
■ Send your Movers & Shakers to biznews@ledger.com

