Peak Physical Therapy sponsors Run 4 Scituate, provides stretching tent

Peak Physical Therapy & Sports Performance was a financial sponsor and provided a stretching tent for participants in the May 7 Run 4 Scituate race.

This marks the third consecutive year that Peak Physical Therapy & Sports Performance has sponsored the popular event, one that raises funds for Scituate public schools. In addition, this year, owner Eric Edelman and physical therapist Rachel Laufer manned a stretching tent for pre-and post-race runners. Managers Rachel Healy and Shannon Delaney also helped at the tent after running the race.

"It was a pleasure to once again be a part of this great community event; we are privileged to offer our assistance and hope to do so for many more years to come," said Edelman.
