REAL ESTATE

South Shore Realtor Don Darling has joined the Jack Conway Realtor Weymouth office. Darling, who was born and raised in New Jersey and grew up in Connecticut, moved to Massachusetts as a college student in 1972. Since then, he has lived in Hingham, Braintree, Quincy, Abington and, for the last 16 years, in Weymouth. Before entering the real estate field in 2013, he was a senior management executive in the retail industry for more than 20 years.

HEALTH & FITNESS

Erica Hicks of Weymouth has been promoted to assistant manager of Physical Peak Therapy & Sports Performance's clinic at 10 New Driftway in Scituate.

Hicks, who received her doctor of physical therapy degree from Springfield College in 2016, employs a comprehensive treatment approach that includes therapeutic exercise and manual techniques. The approach helps patients of all ages achieve independence and return to their previous functional levels, Physical Peak Therapy says. Peak is a South Shore practice that provides comprehensive treatment in orthopedic, spine and sports medicine specialties.

SPOTLIGHT

Paul Hewins of Hingham has become president and chief executive officer of the Skanska USA Building Unit, succeeding Richard Kennedy. Hewins, who will be based in Boston's Seaport District, will be responsible for all building operations across the U.S., reporting to Kennedy. A 32-year industry veteran, with 19 of those years spent with Skanska, Hewins was previously chief operating officer overseeing building operations in New York, New Jersey, Tennessee and Ohio. He had the same Skanska role in other regions, including New England.
