

Peak Physical Therapy names new rehabilitation aide

Peak Physical Therapy & Sports Performance announced that Mary Donovan, of Scituate, has joined the firm as a rehabilitation aide and medical receptionist at the Hanover clinic.

Donovan, who received her Bachelor of Science in kinesiology from the University of Massachusetts-Amherst, joins Peak with 100 observation hours with an outpatient physical therapy clinic. In her spare time, Donovan enjoys reading, working out, going to the beach and boating.

"We're delighted to welcome Mary to our team," said Eric Edelman, owner of Peak Physical Therapy & Sports Performance. "In addition to her recent degree in Kinesiology, she did an athletic training internship
