

Plymouth's Messenger becomes office manager

PLYMOUTH — Peak Physical Therapy & Sports Performance has announced that Julie Messinger, of Plymouth, has joined the firm as office manager of the Scituate clinic. Prior to joining Peak,

Messinger

Messinger, who has a Bachelor of Science in exercise physiology from Westfield State University, was an exercise physiologist and gymnastics coach. She is presently pursuing her master's degree in occupational therapy at Salem State University.

"Julie's experience as an exercise physiologist, in addition to her outstanding organizational and customer service skills make her the ideal person to manage our active Scituate location," owner of Peak Physical Therapy & Sports Performance Eric Edelman said. "It's a pleasure to have Julie on the Peak team."

