

MOVERS & SHAKERS

BUSINESS PEOPLE ON THE MOVE

SPOTLIGHT

Meghan Harrington, DPT of Quincy, has been named by Peak Physical Therapy & Sports Performance as manager of its Quincy clinic at 2300 Crown Colony Drive, Suite 102. In this role, she oversees all operations of the clinic, including scheduling, managing all members of the team, customer service, as well as carrying out patient-centered treatment and care. Harrington has a bachelor of science in kinesiology from the University of Massachusetts-Amherst and a doctorate in physical therapy from Simmons College. She joined Peak Physical Therapy & Sports Performance in 2016. She is a member of the American Physical Therapy Association.

CONSTRUCTION

Ryan Klebes of Duxbury has been promoted to pre-construction director and project executive at Acella Construction Corp. Klebes, most recently senior project manager with Acella, leads the firm's relationships and construction for education and community projects, including cultural organizations, historic restorations, and new construction and interior renovations on independent school campuses. Klebes is a graduate of Wentworth Institute of Technology with a degree in construction management. He lives with his wife and their two children in Duxbury.

REAL ESTATE

Jack Conway & Company, Inc. has hired Hanson resident Alexandra McKearney as marketing manager for the 30-office real estate firm. She will oversee all public relations, print and digital advertising, social media, event coordination and website management for the Conway organization. She is the former senior digital marketing and communications manager for

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Massachusetts Bay. In 2010, she volunteered at an orphanage in Thailand, teaching English to 40 Burmese and Thai children 4 to 16.

GET IN HERE

■ Send us your Movers & Shakers. Submit photos and text about people on the move at your company to: biznews@ledger.com

