

Peak Physical Therapy & Sports Performance welcomes new aide.

Physical Therapy & Sports Performance announced that Samantha Meade, of Marshfield, joined the Scituate clinic as a physical therapy aide.

Meade earned a Bachelor of Science in exercise science from Salem State University. In her new role she will assist the physical therapists in working with patients on their exercise programs.

"Samantha's interest has grown from sports performance into rehabilitation," said Eric Edelman, owner of Peak Physical Therapy & Sports Performance. "Samantha has excellent people skills and is able to put patients at ease during treatment. She is a great addition to our Scituate clinic."

Samantha Meade. [COURTESY PHOTO]

