

Peak Physical Therapy promotes new clinic manager

Peak Physical Therapy & Sports Performance has promoted Weymouth resident Erica Hicks, physical therapist, to the position of clinic manager of the Scituate location.

Hicks received her Doctorate in Physical Therapy from Springfield College in 2016.

She enjoys working with patients of all different ages, from pediatrics to geriatrics. Hicks uses a comprehensive treatment approach including therapeutic exercise and manual techniques to help patients achieve independence and return to their previous functional levels.

She is an aquatic specialist and in her free time, she enjoys skiing, playing racquetball, reading and spending time with her family and friends

“Erica has done an outstanding job in Scituate as our assistant manager and this is a well deserved promotion,” said Eric Edelman, physical therapist, founder of Peak Physical Therapy & Sports Performance. “She loves working with patients and brings great energy and skills to our clinic.”

Erica Hicks