

Peak Physical Therapy promotes Weymouth resident

Peak Physical Therapy & Sports Performance recently announced the promotion of Weymouth's Erica Hicks to the position of clinic manager of the Scituate location.

Hicks received her doctorate in physical therapy from Springfield College in 2016. She is an aquatic specialist and uses a comprehensive treatment approach, including therapeutic exercise and manual techniques, to help patients achieve independence and return to their previous functional levels.

Hicks

"Erica has done an outstanding job in Scituate as our assistant manager and this is a well deserved promotion," said Eric Edelman, founder of Peak Physical Therapy & Sports Performance. "She loves working with patients and brings great energy and skills to our clinic."

For more information, visit <https://peaktherapy.com>.

